

Jerrette Baker

Jerrette has spent his lifetime in the salon industry working in boutique salon environments to large scale salons. Jerrette trained with the London based Toni&Guy and advanced trained with both Toni&Guy and the TIGI Academy in New York City. He also holds a degree in fashion design and fabrication and continues to work in the fashion industry. He also holds additional certifications from Brazilian Blowout, Wella and Pravanna and is Amore's in house TIGI educator. His specialties include creative and technical haircuts and colour for both men and women and has trained to specialize in creative colour techniques such as colour correction, balayage, ombre and colour melding.