

Tracy Anderson

Tracy Anderson is the owner of both Amore Salon and Spa and the Amore Downtown location in Kalispell, MT. Her expert level of leadership and professionalism has won Amore the title of being 'The Best Salon in the Flathead Valley' 3 years in a row as well as 'Salon of the Year' in Salon Today magazine in 2009. In her 20 plus years in the industry, Tracy has won awards and completed numerous certifications. She specializes in women cuts and colors and has been certified in hair extensions for over 12 years. In addition to her high standards for service and quality in the workplace, Tracy's standards for helping others and giving back to her community are second to none. Her primary philanthropic cause is 'Amore Cares' which serves clientele who are fighting cancer by providing them with wig fittings as well as other services. Tracy frequently raises support and awareness for numerous additional charities and fundraisers from around the community.

"I truly love Amore, and what I do. I have never felt I have worked a day in my life doing hair."
